Peripheral Neuropathy: Differential Diagnosis and Management
Apr 01, 2010 · The diagnosis requires careful clinical assessment, judicious laboratory testing, and electrodiagnostic studies or nerve biopsy if the diagnosis remains unclear.

Guidelines for Adult Stroke Rehabilitation and Recovery
Medical Management of Comorbidities, in which reference is made to other published guidelines (e.g., hypertension); (3) Assessment, focused on the body function/structure level of the International Classification of Functioning, Disability, and Health (ICF); (4) Sensorimotor Impairments and Activities

Evidence-Based Practice in the Treatment of Dysphagia in Parkinson’s Disease Consortium Center AUDIO access: connect through your computer or call in on 1-855-767-1051 Conference ID: 2016640